As a result of the soaring prices in fruits and vegetables, some locals in municipalities of SD&G have decided to soften the financial blow that's been put upon us.

With little effect on gas and labour, we are able to shop local for fresh, grown close to home fruits and vegetables.

We have such a market right here in South Stormont.

Nathalie Trembly (as shown on cover) and Mike Argue from Lunenburg have recently opened up in Lunenburg at the previous "Krazy Dan's Meat and Seafood" on the corner of County Road #18 and County Road #12 (Wales Road).

For only $25.00, you can fill up a regular size grocery bags, (supplied) with whatever you need. There are garlics and cabbage, eggplant and more.

Fruits are more seasoned but the owners find a way to bring in banana's, strawberries, kiwis, and assorted citrus.

Pies baked fresh by Yvonne and pre-cooked home-style dinners are also a special treat to bring back home.

Nathalie is open to other local vendors to sell on consignment such as honey and syrup in the near future.

Lunenburg Harvest Market is open seven days a week from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM. For more info, you can check them out on Krazy Dan's Facebook page until they create their own page.

Come and check it out!

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

I am delighted to report that this is my 140th submission to the Know-It-All News for the Lost Villages Historical Society. I join with members in thanking Dave Smith and his team for giving us this opportunity to connect with the community.

The April meeting of the Lost Villages Historical Society will be held on Monday, April 20, 2026, at 1:00 p.m. in the John Cleary Room at the Long Sault Arena. Please mark this date on your calendar and plan to attend. We launched our 2026 meetings with nearly 40 members and continue the momentum. The Lost Villages Historical Society continues to be supported by a strong membership and many friends.

The guest speaker is Bruce Kennedy, a respected photo artist from Williamstown, Glengarry County. Bruce's photos of birds and animals in their natural habitats are often featured on CTV programs, and he was honoured to have one of his images used on Senator Bernadette Clement's 2025 Christmas card. Bruce has a long-standing connect to the Lost Villages Historical Society as his family once lived at Mille St. George's Chapel in Mille Roches. For Roches, and his late mom, Helen (Welch) almost 60 years, this pew was on the Kennedy, was a charter member of the Lost Villages Historical Society.

Once again, See-Way More, a bus transportation company based in Cornwall, has announced that they will host three bus tours "Through the Lands of the Lost Villages" in 2026. I will narrate these step-on tours, with travel enjoyed by participants on an air-conditioned bus. The tour dates are July 17th, August 28th, and September 25th, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The tour bus leaves the Lost Villages Museum site at 1:00 p.m. and includes heritage sites from Guindon Park in Cornwall to Riverside Heights, a short distance west of Upper Canada Village. The cost is $40.00/person. We thank Hassan Rafiei, owner of the bus company, for hosting and driving for these tours. Contact him at SEEWAYMORE.CA.

As previously reported, the historical society has been the recipient of many documents and artifact through the generosity of the public. We are especially pleased with the recent gift of 11 Brooks chairs from the Cornwall Community Museum. Included are chairs with the used on Senator Bernadette Clement's 2025 Brooks Bros. stencilled stamp underneath the seat. As well, we thank Noel Windle for his generosity in donating a pew from Society as his family once lived at Mille St. George's Chapel in Mille Roches. For verandah of the Windle home in Long Sault.

WHO IS THIS GUY!!!

< After a long night of making love, the guy notices a photo of another man, on the woman's nightstand by the bed. He begins to worry. "Is this your husband?" he nervously asks. "No, silly," she replies, snuggling up to him. "Your boyfriend, then?" he continues. "No, not at all," she says, nibbling away at his ear. "Is it your dad or your brother?" he inquires, hoping to be reassured. "No, no, no! You are so hot when you're jealous!" she answers. "Well, who in the hell is he, then?" he demands. She whispers in his ear: "That's me before the surgery."
