Small business is the heartbeat of our community and the lifeline to this community paper. "The Know-It-All News", relies on small local business to be able to send our small community information as to the when, where, why, and how, community events are advertised.

Many start-up businesses like the one that we are profiling in this edition rely on this paper and the many amazing local companies that pay to have this information delivered to you, make all of this possible.

When looking for certain products or services, please contact our locals and listen...

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Spring is in the air, and clean-up work has commenced at the Lost Villages Museum. On April 26th, Sam Roderick and Cindy Bickerstaffe commenced the cleaning of the Sandtown Advent Christian Church, as the first wedding of the season will take place on May 3rd. Both Sam and Cindy were contracted to do the initial deep cleaning of all the buildings at the museum.

The historical society extends a sincere "Thank You" to Jason Lavallee, Manager of Parks and Facilities for the Township of South Stormont, for overseeing the door replacements at the Sandtown Advent Christian Church. With the understanding that the first wedding for 2026 is slated for May 3rd, Jason worked diligently to oversee the project and to make sure the project was completed on time. Allan Bulloch, the craftman for this project, did an amazing job with the construction, and he was able to incorporate the vintage hardware into the door replacements. This was a job "Well Done"!

At the historical society meeting on April 20th, a large crowd of members and friends enjoyed the presentation by guest speaker Bruce Kennedy, a photo-artist from Williamstown. Bruce's presentation brought viewers around the world with his spectacular images, as well as his images of birds and animals. It was easy to see that Bruce has a fondness for owls and foxes.

The next meeting of the historical society is its Annual General Meeting to be held at St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church Hall, 15 Memorial Square, Ingleside, on Monday, May 18, 2026, beginning with a social ½ hour at 5:30 p.m. A ham dinner will follow at 6:00 p.m., and will include dessert, tea/coffee, for a cost of $25.00. Reservations may be made by emailing Jim Brownell by Monday, May 11th at jim.k.brownell@gmail.com, or phoning 613-534-2423. The guest speaker will be our very own member, Carol Goddard, the president of the Ontario East British Home Child Family (OEBHCF), president of the St. Lawrence Branch of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada, and an active member with the Chesterville and District Historical Society. Carol's presentation entitled "November 1813 in Stormont and Dundas" will look at the arrival of the American invaders west of Iroquois, the Battle of Hoople Creek, the Battle of Crysler's Farm, the church at St. Andrew's West that was converted to a hospital, and the movement of stores out of Cornwall and its occupation.

A GOOD CATHOLIC JOKE

• The Pope and Trump are on the same stage in Yankee Stadium in front of a huge crowd. The Pope leans towards Trump and said, "Do you know that with one little wave of my hand, I can make every person in this crowd go wild with joy? This joy will not be a momentary display, but will go deep into their hearts and they'll forever speak of this day and rejoice!"

Trump replied, "I seriously doubt that! With one little wave of your hand...Show me!"

So the Pope backhanded him and knocked him off the stage! AND THE CROWD ROARED & CHEERED WILDLY and there was happiness throughout the land!

WATCH WHAT YOU SAY

• Wife: I have a bag full of used clothing I'd like to donate.

Husband: Why not just throw it in the trash? That's much easier.

Wife: But there are poor starving people who can really use all of these clothes.

Husband: Honey, anyone who fits into your clothing is not starving.

Husband is recovering from a head injury now.

• Have you ever noticed that a woman's "I'll be ready in 5 minutes" and a man's "I'll be home in 5 minutes" are exactly the same thing?

• Q. Why do baby diapers have names like "Luvs", "Huggies", and "Pampers", while undergarments for old people are called "Depends".

A. When babies crap in their pants, people are still gonna Luv'em, Hug'em and Pamper'em. When old people crap in their pants it "Depends" on who's in the will!
