GOING FOR BREAKFAST?

This is a very popular and common question posed by almost every rural resident in the summer. It seems to be "the way to start our day".

More so than in big cities where people are always on the go, in a hurry, and eat in their car or public transportation, us from the rural communities seem to take the time to socialize, or plan our day in our local restaurants.

It seems that most restaurants in South Stormont are all great little spots, however, they all have their own personality. This is also a nice touch.

We all have our favourite but many of us will bounce from place to place for a variety of reasons. These reasons can vary from food quality, service, prices, and even because of some customers that you know will be there.

We, in South Stormont, are very fortunate to have that variety, and lots of it. All of these privately owned small businesses seem to do very well, especially during the summer month with the increased tourism.

People often compare one restaurant to another, but in the end, they all have something unique to offer and that attracts us to their meeting place.

Many of you will be reading this in one of your favourite diners and will now start to discuss your likes, and maybe a dislike, about certain eating establishments. But...you're supporting local business and our local economy whenever you go in any of our South Stormont restaurants.

Enjoy your meal. Tip generously!

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

On Victoria Day, Monday, May 18th, 34 members of the Lost Villages Historical Society gathered at St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church Hall in Ingleside for the Annual General Meeting of the historical society. After enjoying a delicious ham dinner served by church members, an interesting presentation on the Battle of Chrysler's Farm and event leading up to it was delivered by Carol Goddard, a well-known local personality involved with the Friends of the Chrysler's Farm Battlefield, the St. Lawrence Chapter of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada, and the Chesterville and District Historical Society. She serves as President of the Ontario East British Home Child Family, as well.

The following slate of officers was appointed to the Executive Committee of the historical society: Jim Brownell – President; John Sliter - Vice-President; Cindy Bickerstaffe - Recording Secretary and Membership Chair; Veronique Landry - Email and Social Media Secretary; Gloria Waldroff – Treasurer; Tim Gault - Events Coordinator; and Garry Meek - Director.

Work continues at a rapid pace to have the museum buildings ready to welcome visitor and tourists on Opening

Day, Monday, June 1, 2026. Cindy Bickerstaffe and Sandra "Sam" Roderick have been hired to put sparkle and shine into the museum buildings. On Wednesday, May 27th, a few days before opening day, 27 delegates to the Economic Development Council of Ontario Regional Conference will visit the museum site. Prior to the museum visit, the delegates will visit the Native North American Travelling College on Cornwall Island and the Saunders Hydro Dam Visitor Centre at Cornwall. Their visit will culminate with a refreshment break at the Lost Villages Brewery at Long Sault.

On Thursday, June 11th, nearly 300 students from Longue Sault Public School will participate in a Bike-a-thon to the Lost Villages Museum. The historical society is excited, once again, to be hosting the staff and students at the museum site. A barbecue will round out the visit.

The historical society wishes to thank the Lost Villages Brewery for the recent monetary donation of $1,500.00. These funds were raised from the sale of Jim's Brown Ale, a beer that was unveiled at my book launch, "A Tour Through the Lands of the Lost Villages", in 2024. The brewery donated 50 cents from every beer sold.

Very soon, an announcement will be made regarding the launch of my second book, "Lost...As the Waters Rose; A History in Narratives".

DO YOU KNOW A DAD LIKE THIS?

- Falls asleep the second they sit on the couch
 - Asks about your car
 - Sneezes really loud
 - Acts like they are way younger than they are
 - Thinks they are smarter than a GPS
 - Writes in all caps
 - Have thick wallets
 - Backs into parking spaces
 - Comments on gas prices in other cities and provinces
 - Shakes their handful of candy/peanuts before popping into their mouth
 - Saying ask your mom
 - Saying "You make a better door than a window."
 - Farts loudly for no reason
 - Crazy about their lawn
 - Always the middle ground between kids and mom
- Sounds like anyone you know?

MORE DAD STUFF

- I'm such a good navigator, a self-driving car once asked me for directions.
- My wife gave me a list of jobs to do. I only did job 1-3-5. She found out I only do odd jobs.

THINGS TO PONDER...

1. If the No. 2 pencil is the most popular, why is it still No. 2?
2. Why do we drive on parkways and park on driveways?
3. Why do "fat chance" & "slim chance" mean the same?
4. Why do people say "heads up" when you should duck?
5. Why isn't phonetic spelled the way it sounds?
6. Why are you "in" a movie, but "on" TV?
7. Why are there no 'B' batteries?
8. Why is a "pair" of underwear one item?
9. When does it stop being partly cloudy and start being partly sunny?
10. Why do we press harder on a remote control when we know the batteries are getting weak?
