The Stormont County Fair, or...as some know it as the Newington Fair and to those sarcastic few, it's called the World's Fair. Regardless of it's tag line, everyone for miles around as they say, will know exactly what you're talking about.

It's just around the corner, in its usual spot, nestled in the heart of Newington since 1867. It originally began in a field near Willard Wereley's property in Osnabruck Centre.

As it is every year, the festivities are held on Labour Day weekend. This year, 2026, the most popular event is the Demolition Derby as usual, starting on Friday night, Sept. 4th.

We are making plans for our fall programming. For those marking your calendars, here is what you can expect. Our cruise on August 19th is fully booked. There will be an email going out soon to those going to confirm all the details. Our monthly meetings will return on Monday, September 14th at 10 am in the South Stormont Community Hall. The guest speaker is yet to be announced. On October 5th, we will host a potluck meeting and lunch at our regular time and place. We are working on the Christmas Bazaar that will be held on November 14th. We have a lot of great vendors already confirmed. Chair yoga is every Tuesday and Thursday at 10 am at the Hall. Indoor walking is Tuesday at 11 am. Look for the return of line dancing on Tuesday September 8th at 11 am. Break the isolation. Membership is only $20 per year.

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

There is no slowing down with regards to activities associated with the historical society and museum. Visitors continue to arrive at the museum, and our summer Historical Interpreters have welcomed visitors from around the world.

Our museum site could not have a more perfect location with its location along County Road 2, (also known as Heritage Highway 2) and the St. Lawrence Bikeway. Often, cyclists are surprised to see the museum so close to the bike path.

During the past month, you have probably seen many cars parked in the vicinity of the Lost Villages Archives. These are the volunteers who are working on the Argus Collection Management program to document the artifacts in the historical society's collection. Very soon, a launch of the program will be made, as we wish to showcase what the team is doing, and what impact the data base will have on our outreach into the community. Watch for our official launch in the near future.

The Argus team is headed by John Sliter, Vice-President of the historical society, and includes the following participants: Maddy Dejonge, Hatim Aljarrah, Sharon Porter, Margaret Dewar, Kim Suto, Cindy Bickerstaffe, and Sue Cowden. Member David Hill is spending time at his home checking through past newsletters of the historical society in search of entries for donated items. With my long time association with the historical society since the 1970s and my long association with the museum's collection since 1992, I have been invited to review the entries that are made into the Argus program.

Door Open, a program established in Ontario by the Ontario Heritage Trust, is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in 2026. Since its inception, the Lost Villages Historical Society has been a participant through the good work of the local tourism associations. This year, our museum site will host visitors on Saturday, August 15th and Sunday, August 16th, so plan a visit during this year's program. As part of the weekend activities, the historical society will host some plaque unveiling events at the museum site on Sunday, August 16th at 1:00 pm. The historical society will unveil replacement plaques for the Ault Park Memorial Stone, the centrepiece of Ault Park. These plaques will replace those stolen in 2025. As well, the St. Lawrence Branch of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada will unveil a plaque, as well. A "Lemonade and Sugar Cookie" reception will follow the unveilings.

BLONDE AT THE SUPER BOWL

After the game, he asked her how she like it. "Oh, I really liked it," she replied, "especially the tight pants and all the big muscles, but I just couldn't understand why they are killing each other for 25 cents."

Dumbfounded, her boyfriend asked, "What do you mean?"

"Well, they flipped a coin, one team got it and then for the rest of the game, all they kept screaming was... 'Get the quarterback! Get the quarterback!' I'm like...Hellooooooo? It's only 25 cents!"

• A wife, being the romantic sort, sent her husband a text: "If you are sleeping, send me your dreams. If you are laughing, send me your smile. If you are eating, send me a bite. If you are drinking, send me a sip. If you are crying, send me your tears. I love you!"

The husband, typically non-romantic, replied: "I am on the toilet. Please advise."

• Earl and Bubba are quietly sitting in a boat fishing, chewing tobacco, and drinking beer when suddenly Bubba says, "Think I'm gonna divorce the wife - she ain't spoke to me in over 2 months."

Earl spits overboard, takes a long, slow sip of beer and says, "Better think it over; women like that are hard to find."

• A woman has sued a Hospital stating that after recent treatment, her husband has lost interest in holding hands, cuddling, and being seen with me in public.

The Hospital in their defence stated... "All we did was correct his eyesight."
